

Sorgenfrey line

Let \mathbb{R} be equipped with the topology (called lower limit topology) generated by lower half open intervals $[a, b)$. The space so obtained is called the Sorgenfrey line.

This space is separable, first countable, but not second countable. (Try to prove these.)